

Nature Code Launch & Public Film Screening

Monday 22 July 2013, from 6:00-10pm

at Mundo-B in the Cafeteria

Rue d'Edimbourg 26, 1050 Bruxelles

Dear friends,

It is our pleasure to invite you to a celebratory evening where we will officially launch our new non-profit association:

Nature Code - Centre of Environment & Development

We will be screening two short documentary films, providing a bit of food, drink and music afterwards, giving us all the opportunity to connect with each other and share a good time with you, our friends and colleagues!

Nature Code

stands for evidence based advocacy.

We champion policy solutions that promote environmental integrity, transparency and good governance and contribute to sustainable development.

Hence our mantra:

Our planet is not for sale

In addition to projects surrounding forestry, transportation and capacity building, Nature Code also assumes the responsibility of running Carbon Market Watch and its Network.

The evening will consist of a...

6:00pm - Welcome drink & snacks

7:00pm - Screening of:

RECODE (9mins 56)

This is Nature Code's first educational documentary which takes a fresh look at forest carbon, exploring the initiatives currently being developed to reduce emissions through forest resources. More details at www.re-code.org

7:15pm - Screening of:

The Timbaktu Collective (22mins)

of this documentary film.

This is a film made by Delhi-based filmmakers Rintu Thomas and Sushmit Ghosh and inspired by the Timbaktu Collective, an organization Nature Code is currently working with. It carries the idea of developing alternative, practical and sustainable models of development. The intimate relationship between farmers and their land, forms the scope

7:45pm - Meeting the Nature Code team and General Assembly members for a chat, have a drink and listen to some music!
