

Day 1: Climate Change
Time	Subject
9.30- 10.00am	Registration
10.00-10.10am	Welcome and briefing of 3 workshop , setting and context
10.10- 10.20am	Introduction of participants
10:20- 12.20pm (presentations should be max. 20 minutes each, discussion 30 minutes; this applies to all sessions)	Session 1: Big picture update on UNFCCC and look ahead to Lima
	Current state of play: climate change, human rights, sustainable development and new carbon market developments
	Big picture update on carbon market developments, climate finance and climate instruments
	Human Rights, sustainable development and climate policies
	Update on process towards Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)
Lunch break
2.15- 3.45	Session 2: Update on climate change aspects in India
	Food sovereignty and sustainable agriculture
	Water
	Energy
	Livelihoods and employment
	Adaptation
Tea break
4.00-5.30	Session 3: Climate politics at international, national and regional level
	Indian climate policies: an overview of the current state of play and future developments
	International climate politics: Expectations for a future climate treaty, key elements and role of India
	Example of regional climate politics in India: status quo and look ahead
5.40- 5.50	Recap of the day and short overview of following day

Day 2: Impact of climate policies on sustainable development

Time	Subject
9.30-9.45	Welcome and recap of day 1
9.45- 11.15am	Session 4: Sustainable development generation and the CDM: case studies and experiences
	Climate mitigation projects and their contribution to sustainable development- a field study
	SD impact of Indian CDM projects
	The sustainable development tracker- a project by Carbon Market Watch
	SDGs: lessons learnt and way forward
Tea break
11.15-12.45	Session 5: CSO panel covering the following topics:
	Equity and sovereignty
	Introduction to and comparison of policy frameworks including a rights based approach and safeguards
	-CDM
	-REDD
	Safeguard policies in climate finance
	Human Rights and Climate Finance
Lunch break
2.30- 4pm	Session 6: introduction to NAMAs and look ahead to future developments
	An introduction to NAMAs- rules and regulations and the role of the civil society
	NAMAs in the context of Indian climate politics- chances for India
	NAMAs vs CDM look ahead
Tea break
4.50- 6pm	Session 7: Multi-stakeholder panel on sustainable development impacts of climate policies
6-6.10pm	Recap of the day and short overview of following day

Day 3: Way forward

Time	Subject
9.30-9.45am	Welcome and recap of day 2
9.45- 11.15	Session 8: CSO Panel on recommendations for future reforms on national and international level - Climate mitigation -Climate adaptation -Sustainable development -Climate Finance -Human Rights based approach
Tea break
11.45- 12.30pm	Overall overview of the discussed issues and recap of
Lunch	