

The Effort Sharing Decision post-2020: How to ensure that the EU's largest climate instrument is fit for purpose

Wednesday 1st June 2016, 13:00 – 14:30
European Parliament – Room ASP 3G3

A Policy Event kindly hosted by:

Kathleen van Brempt, S&D

Gerben-Jan Gerbrandy, ALDE

Sirpa Pietikäinen, EPP

Agenda

'What should the ESD look like? The German perspective'

Jasper Braam, Federal Ministry for the Environment of Germany

'Protect the target: enhance flexibilities, eliminate loopholes'

Femke de Jong, Carbon Market Watch

Sectoral Perspectives

Transport sector:

William Todts, Transport and Environment

Building/Housing sector:

Randal Bowie, Rockwool/European Council for an Energy Efficiency Economy

Agricultural Sector:

David Baldock, Institute for European Environmental Policy

Governance and Legal Considerations

Dr Nils Meyer-Olhendorf, Ecologic

Q&A Session